-----X
THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK :

ALPHONSE INDELICATO a/k/a :
SONNY RED :

Defendant. :

THE GRAND JURY OF THE COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse the above named defendant of the crime of PERJURY IN THE FIRST DEGREE in violation of Section 210.15 of the Penal Law, committed on October 31, 1972, in the County of New York as follows:

The Third August 1972 Grand Jury, having been duly and properly empanelled, was conducting an investigation into the death of Joseph Gallo to determine whether certain individuals committed the crimes of Murder and Conspiracy to commit the crime of Murder in violation of Sections 125.25 and 105.15 of the Penal Law.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury indicated that Joseph Gallo was murdered on April 7, 1972 while inside Umberto's Clam House located at 129 Mulberry Street in New York County.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury indicated that following the attempted murder on the life of Joseph Colombo in the latter part of June 1971 in New York County, Colombo crime faction members sought the aid of defendant in finding for them a clandestine meeting place.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that the defendant arranged for the Colombo crime faction hideout to be located at 101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that before the murder of Joseph Gallo, the hideout located at 101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York was utilized by Colombo crime faction members and that discussions were had in the presence of the defendant inside the said hideout premises located at 101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York, concerning the proposed murder of Joseph Gallo.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that after the murder of Joseph Gallo, the defendant and other Colombo crime faction members visited the said hideout premises and discussed with Joseph Yacovelli the murder of Joseph Gallo.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that after the murder of Joseph Gallo Carmine DiBiase, also known as Sonny Pinto, accompanied by two crime faction associates reported to and stayed with Joseph Yacovelli inside 101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York.

The defendant testified before the Grand Jury on October 31, 1972 that he has known Joseph Yacovelli and Carmine DiBiase for several years.

In order to determine whether or not Carmine DiBiase also known as Sonny Pinto and others murdered Joseph Gallo on April 7, 1972 inside Umberto's Clam House located at 129 Mulberry Street in New York County and whether said murder was authorized by Joseph Yacovelli and whether said Carmine DiBiase, also known as Sonny Pinto and Joseph Yacovelli and others met in the same hideout premises located at 101 Gedney Street apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York prior to the murder of Joseph Gallo and while in the presence of said defendant inside said hideout premises discussed the proposed murder of Joseph Gallo and what after the murder of Joseph Gallo said defendant and other Colombo crime faction members visited the said hideout premises and while therein discussed the murder of Joseph Gallo, it became material and necessary to ask the said defendant if he visited the said hideout apartment premises located at 101 Gedney Street, Nyack, New York.

On October 31, 1972 the defendant appeared before the Third August 1972 Grand Jury in the County of New York, and after having been duly sworn before the said Grand Jury, the foreman thereof having authority to administer an oath and said oath being required by law the defendant stated that he would truthfully testify in connection with said investigation and having had immunity conferred upon him, the defendant swore falsely as follows:

That he, the defendant, was never in Nyack, New York and was never at 101 Gedney Street in Nyack, New York.

Whereas in truth and in fact as the defendant well knew said testimony was false, and the truth was that the defendant visited Nyack, New York and visited 101 Gedney Street in Nyack, New York.

The said false testimony was to a material matter in that the purpose of said inquiry was to ascertain whether Carmine DiBiase, also known as Sonny Pinto, with others murdered Joseph Gallo on April 7, 1972, and whether said murder was authorized by Joseph Yacovelli and whether their plans to murder Joseph Gallo were discussed inside the said hideout Nyack premises, and whether or not after the murder of Joseph Gallo they met at the said hideout and further discussed the murder of Joseph Gallo.

SECOND COUNT:

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, accuse the above named defendant of the crime of PERJURY IN THE FIRST DEGREE in violation of Section 210.15 of the Penal Law, committed on October 31, 1972, in the County of New York as follows:

The Third August 1972 Grand Jury, having been duly and properly empanelled, was conducting an investigation into the death of Joseph Gallo to determine whether certain individuals committed the crimes of Murder and Conspiracy to commit the crime of Murder in violation of Sections 125.25 and 105.15 of the Penal Law.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury indicated that Joseph Gallo was murdered on April 7, 1972 while inside Umberto's Clan House located at 129 Mulberry Street in New York County.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury indicated that following the attempted murder on the life of Joseph Colombo in the latter part of June 1971 in New York County, Colombo crime faction members sought the aid of defendant in finding for them a clandestine meeting place.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that the defendant arranged for the Colombo crime faction hideout to be located at 101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that before the murder of Joseph Gallo, the hideout located at 101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York was utilized by Colombo crime faction members and that discussions were had in the presence of the defendant inside the said hideout premises located at 101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York concerning the proposed murder of Joseph Gallo.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that after the murder of Joseph Gallo, the defendant and other Colombo crime faction members visited the said hideout premises and discussed with Joseph Yacovelli the murder of Joseph Gallo.

Testimony adduced before the Grand Jury further indicated that after the murder of Joseph Gallo Carmine BiBiase also known as Sonny Pinto, accompanied by two crime faction associates reported to and stayed with Joseph Yacovelli inside

101 Gedney Street, apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York.

The defendant testified before the Grand Jury on October 31, 1972 that he has known Joseph Yacovelli and Carmine DiBiase for several years.

In order to determine whether or not Carmine DiBiase a/k/a Sonny Pinto and others murdered Joseph Gallo on April 7, 1972 inside Umberto's Clam House located at 129 Mulberry Street in New York County and whether said murder was authorized by Joseph Yacovelli and whether said Carmine DiBiase, also known as Sonny Pinto and Joseph Yacovelli and others met in the same hideout premises located at 101 Gedney Street apartment 1K, in Nyack, New York prior to the murder of Joseph Gallo and while in the presence of said defendant inside said hideout premises discussed the proposed murder of Joseph Gallo and whereafter the murder of Joseph Gallo said defendant and other Colombo crime faction members visited the said hideout premises and while therein discussed the murder of Joseph Gallo, it became material and necessary to ask the said defendant if he visited the said hideout premises located at 101 Gedney Street, Nyack, New York, and while there conferred with Joseph Yacovelli after the murder of Joseph Gallo.

On October 31, 1972 the defendant appeared before the Third August 1972 Grand Jury in the County of New York, and after having been duly sworn before the said Grand Jury, the foreman thereof having authority to administer an oath and said oath being required by law the defendant stated that he would truthfully testify in connection with said investigation and having had immunity conferred upon him, the defendant swore falsely as follows:

That he, the defendant, did not see and did not communicate with Joseph Yacovelli in Nyack, New York after the murder of Joseph Gallo on April 7, 1972.

Whereas in truth and in fact as the defendant well knew said testimony was false, and the truth was that the defendant did see and communicated with Joseph Yacovelli in Nyack, New York after the murder of Joseph Gallo on April 7, 1972.

* The said false testimony was to a material matter in that the purpose of said inquiry was to ascertain whether Carmine DiBiase, also known as Sonny Pinto, with others murdered Joseph Gallo on April 7, 1972 and whether said murder was authorized by Joseph Yacovelli and whether, their plans to murder Joseph Gallo were discussed inside the said hideout Nyack premises, and whether or not after the murder of Joseph Gallo they met at the said hideout and further discussed the murder of Joseph Gallo.

On 2/26/73 writer and SA [REDACTED] interviewed [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] NYC. She advised as follows: -

Sonny (the subject) is still in jail at Manhattan House of Detention. She stated he is in good health but had no idea when he was going to get out. She stated that subject's wife, Beatrice has a bad heart and has to take it easy. She said Sonny has a son named Anthony Indelicato who is married and lives in the Bronx (she would not elaborate on Anthony "Bruno" Indelicato). She stated she has not seen Anthony for quite awhile.

She stated that Sonny never did all the things the police said he did and that Sonny was very bitter at the NYCPD for all the things they have done to him the past 20 years.

On 3/5/73 an attempt to interview subject by writer & SA [REDACTED] at Manhattan House of Detention met with negative results:

[REDACTED] NY
House of Detention Boxer St, NYC advised that subject was released on 2/26/73 because he posted $15,000 bail and NYS Parole took detailee off him. While at the Tomb since Dec 1972, subject had only one visitor his

Re my memo dated 3/5/73.

On 3/6/73 [REDACTED] N.Y. State
Parole W. 40 St. NYC stated the reason "Sonny Ref" Indelicato got out of the Tombs was because Parole had to lift detainer on him.
He stated court ruled that if Indelicato could make bail the detainer was illegal because Indelicato was merely indicted and not convicted. He stated Sonny posted $15,000 bail on 2/26/73.

[REDACTED] stated that if we (the FBI) could find out if Indelicato made a "boudier" on home on Selden N.Y. for [REDACTED]

Then we might get IRS to show that Indelicato could not afford this house. [Last year supposedly Indelicato declared $5000 income from J.M. Brucane Property on Grand St. He further stated that [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] is married to a [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] who also owns home on [REDACTED]
